Chaque Administration peut autoriser l'office de consignation à délivrer à l'expéditeur lors de la consignation du colis, un accusé de réception établi sur un formulaire spécial. Aux Etats-Unis d'Amérique, l'expéditeur peut demander l'enregistrement du colis moyennant paiement de la taxe d'enregistrement perçue dans ce pays; il lui est alors délivré, s'il le désire, un accusé de réception non-passible d'une taxe supplémentaire.

En Suisse, tous les colis sont traités comme envois enregistrés. En y payant la taxe d'un accusé de réception, l'expéditeur d'un colis peut en obtenir un.

Les déclarations de douane employées pour les colis à destination de la Suisse, doivent, indépendamment de l'anglais, être rédigées, si possible, en allemand, en français ou en italien.

ARTICLE VI.

Aux Etats-Unis d'Amérique les destinataires sont avisés par the office of destination of the arrival of registered parcels addressed to them.

The Administration of Posts of the country of destination may also, if it sees fit, advise the addressees of the arrival of unregistered parcels addressed to them.

In Switzerland, all parcels are delivered at the residence of the addressee, barring contrary request on his part.

In the United States of America, the parcels are delivered free of all postage charges by the post offices of destination.

In Switzerland, the domestic rate is collected from the addressees, for each parcel originating in a foreign country. When the parcels are delivered, the customs duties with which they are marked are collected in accordance with the customs laws of the country of destination. Moreover, the Administration of Posts of the country of destination, may, if it so desires, collect from the addressee, for each parcel:

in the United States of America, a fee of 5 cents at most, irrespective of weight, and in Switzerland, a fee of 50 centimes at most for parcels up to 5 kilograms, and 80 centimes at most for parcels from 5 to 10 kilograms.

These charges are collected by way of compensation for the domestic service of the Administration of the country of destination and delivery to the addressee.

To these charges are to be added, in Switzerland, the eventual storage charges, in accordance with the provisions in force in the Swiss service.

ARTICLE VII.

The parcels are sent in direct despatches exchanged between the United States of America and Switzerland. Parcels originating in the United States of America are despatched at the expense of the Administration of Posts of that country, to the post l'office de destination, de l'arrivée de colis enregistrés, expédiés à leur adresse.

L'Administration des postes du pays de destination peut également, si elle le juge à propos, aviser les destinataires de l'arrivée de colis non-enregistrés expédiés à leur adresse.

En Suisse, tous les colis sont délivrés au domicile du destinataire, sauf demande contraire de sa part.

Aux Etats-Unis d'Amérique, les colis sont délivrés exempts de toute taxe postale, par les offices postaux destinataires.

En Suisse, la taxe interne applicable aux colis en provenance de l'étranger est perçue des destinataires, pour chaque colis. Lors de la distribution des colis, les droits de douane dont ils sont grevés sont perçus conformément aux prescriptions douanières du pays de destination. En outre, l'Administration des postes du pays de destination peut, si elle le désire, percevoir du destinataire, par colis:

aux Etats-Unis d'Amérique, un droit de 5 cents au maximum, sans tenir compte du poids, et en Suisse, un droit de 50 centimes au maximum pour les colis jusqu'à 5 kg, et de 80 centimes au maximum pour les colis de 5 à 10 kg.

Ces taxes sont perçues à titre de compensation pour le service interne de l'Administration du pays de destination et la remise au destinataire.

A ces taxes viennent s'ajouter, en Suisse, les droits éventuels de magasinage conformément aux dispositions en vigueur dans le service suisse.

ARTICLE VII.

Les colis sont expédiés au moyen de dépêches directes échangées entre les Etats-Unis d'Amérique et la Suisse. Les colis en provenance des Etats-Unis d'Amérique sont expédiés, aux frais de l'Administration des postes de ce pays, au bureau de Closed sacks.

The parcels are despatched in ordinary mail sacks bearing the inscription "Parcel Post." Such sacks may not contain any other mail article; they must be solidly closed by means of sealing wax, or otherwise as may be mutually provided.

Return of empty sacks.

Subject to further agreements which may be made on the subject, each receiving exchange office must return the empty sacks, by the next mail, to the despatching exchange office.

Packing.

Although the transmission of the articles authorized by the present convention takes place between the exchange offices and in the manner described above, the parcels should be so carefully packed as to withstand the conveyance in the open mails in the domestic service of each contracting Administration, i. e., as far as the despatching exchange office in the country of origin and to the address of the addressee in the country of destination.

Descriptive list.
To Switzerland.

For each despatch of parcel post addressed to Switzerland, a parcel bill is made up in two copies (original and duplicate), in which each parcel shall be entered separately, according to the number of mailing and the office of origin. The original parcel bill shall be inserted in one of the sacks, which is to be designated by a distinctive mark, while the duplicate shall be sent to the exchange office of destination, under registered cover, together with the customs declarations.

To United States.

In the direction from Switzerland to the United States of America, the original parcel bill is Les colis sont expédiés dans des sacs postaux ordinaires portant la suscription "Parcel Post." Ces sacs ne peuvent renfermer aucun autre envoi postal; ils doivent être fermés solidement au moyen de cire à cacheter ou de tout autre système à convenir.

Sous réserve des dispositions ultérieures qui pourraient être convenues à ce sujet, chaque bureau d'échange réceptonnaire doit renvoyer les sacs vides, par le prochain courrier, au bureau d'échange expéditeur.

Bien que la transmission des objets autorisés par la présente convention ait lieu entre les bureaux d'échange de la manière décrite ci-avant, les colis devront être emballés d'une façon suffisamment solide pour supporter le transport à découvert dans le service interne de chaque Administration contractante, c. à. d. jusqu'au bureau d'échange expéditeur, en ce qui concerne le pays d'origine, et jusqu'à l'adresse du destinataire, quant au pays de destination.

Pour chaque dépêche de colis, postaux à destination de la Suisse, il est établi une double feuille de route (parcel bill) (original et duplicata) dans laquelle chaque colis sera inscrit séparément d'après le numéro de consignation et l'office d'origine. La feuille de route originale doit être insérée dans l'un des sacs à pourvoir d'une marque distinctive, tandis que le duplicata sera envoyé au bureau d'échange destinataire, dans un pli recommandé et joint aux déclarations de douane.

ARTICLE VIII.

Immediately after the arrival of a despatch, the exchange office of destination shall verify its contents.

Errors found in the entries on the parcel bill must be corrected, after having been examined and attested by a second employee. The exchange office of origin must then be advised, by means of a bulletin of verification, to be sent in a special envelope.

When the parcel bill is missing, and when the exchange office of destination is not in possession of a duplicate, it at once proceeds to make up a list intended to replace the original parcel bill.

When a parcel entered on the parcel bill is missing, the relative entry is struck out, after verification of the shortage by a second employee. Advice thereof is immediately given to the despatching exchange office.

When a parcel arrives in damaged or imperfect condition, full particulars shall be reported on the same form.

If no bulletin of verification or other advice of error is received, a parcel post despatch is considered as regularly received and acknowledged to be correct in all respects.

ARTICLE IX.

Parcels which cannot be delivered, or which are refused by the addressee, are returned without cost by each of the contracting Administrations to the despatching exchange office after a period of 30 days, counting from the date of arrival of the parcel at the office of destination.

The charges to be collected from the sender for the return conveyance are fixed by each of

ARTICLE VIII.

Immédiatement après l'arrivée d'une dépêche, le bureau d'échange de destination doit en vérifier le contenu.

Les erreurs constatées dans les inscriptions de la feuille de route doivent être corrigées après avoir été examinées et attestées par un second employé. Le bureau d'échange d'origine doit alors en être avisé au moyen d'un bulletin de vérification à envoyer dans une enveloppe spéciale.

Lorsque la feuille de route fait défaut et que le bureau d'échange destinataire n'est pas en possession d'un duplicata, il procède immédiatement à l'établissement d'une liste destinée à remplacer la feuille de route originale.

Lorsqu'un colis inscrit sur la feuille de route fait défaut, l'inscription y relative est annulée sur la feuille de route après constatation du manque par un second employé. Avis en est immédiatement donné au bureau d'échange expéditeur.

Lorsqu'un colis arrive avarié ou dans un état défectueux, avis de tous les détails doit être donné sur le même formulaire.

S'il n'est arrivé aucun bulletin de vérification ou autre avis d'erreur, une dépêche de colis postaux est considérée comme régulièrement reçue et reconnue exacte à tous égards.

ARTICLE IX.

Les colis qui ne peuvent pas être délivrés ou qui sont refusés du destinataire, sont renvoyés, sans frais, par chacune des Administrations contractantes, au bureau d'échange expéditeur de la dépêche, après un délai de 30 jours à compter de la date d'arrivée du colis à l'office de destination.

Les taxes à percevoir de l'expéditeur pour le transport en retour sont fixées, par chacune des However, such indemnity may not exceed the sum of 50 francs for each registered parcel.

En cas de perte, d'avarie ou de vol constaté lors du chargement des colis enregistrés, excepté les cas de force majeure, l'Administration des postes dans le service de laquelle il est prouvé que la perte, l'avarie ou le vol a eu lieu, est tenue de rembourser à l'expéditeur du colis, à titre d'indemnité, le montant équivalent à la valeur de ce qui a été perdu, volé ou détérioré. Toutefois cette indemnité ne peut excéder la somme de fr. 50.—par colis enregistré.

Adjustment of claims.

The procedure adopted in order to fix responsibility in case of loss, damage or rifling, and in order to settle the question of payment of indemnity and of presenting the request for indemnity, is that prescribed by Article 10 of the Universal Postal Convention of Madrid concerning responsibility in regard to registered articles.

Vol. 42, p. 1984.

Time limit.

The request for indemnity is valid only if made within the period of one year, counting from the date of mailing of the registered parcel to which it relates.

La demande en indemnité n'est valable que si elle est faite dans le courant d'une année à compter de la date de consignation à la poste du colis enregistré auquel elle se rapporte.

ARTICLE XI.

Retention of charges.

The postage, registry, portage and storage charges belong entirely to the Administration collecting them. No special account is therefore to be made between the contracting Administrations. Les taxes postales d'enregistrement, de factage et de magasinage appartiennent en entier à l'Administration qui les a perçues. Les Etats-Unis, l'Empire Britannique et le Japon conviennent de maintenir, en matière de fortifications et de bases navales, le statu quo tel qu'il existe au jour de la signature du présent

The United States, the British Empire and Japan agree that the status quo at the time of the signing of the present Treaty, with regard to fortifications and naval bases, shall be maintained traité dans leurs territoires et possessions respectifs ci-après désignés :

(1) Les possessions insulaires, soit actuelles, soit futures, des Etats-Unis dans l'océan Pacifique, à l'exception: (a) de celles avoisinant la côte des Etats-Unis, de l'Alaska et de la zone du Canal de Panama, non compris les Iles Aléoutiennes; (b) des Iles Hawai;

(2) Hong-Kong et les possessions insulaires, soit actuelles, soit futures, de l'Empire Britannique dans l'Océan Pacifique, situées à l'est du méridien de 110° est de Greenwich, à l'exception: (a) de celles avoisinant la côte du Canada; (b) du Commonwealth d'Australie et de ses Territoires; (c) de la Nouvelle-Zélande;

(3) Les territoires et possessions insulaires du Japon dans l'Océan Pacifique, ci-après désignés: Iles Kouriles, Iles Bonin, Amami-Oshima, Iles Liou-Kiou, Formose et Pescadores, ainsi que tous territoires ou possessions insulaires futurs du Japon dans l'Océan Pacifique.

Le maintien du statu quo visé ci-dessus implique:

qu'il ne sera établi dans les territoires et possessions ci-dessus visés ni bases navales, ni fortifications nouvelles; qu'il ne sera pris aucune mesure de nature à accroître les ressources navales existant actuellement pour la réparation et l'entretien des forces navales; et qu'il ne sera procédé à aucun renforcement des défenses côtières des territoires et possessions ci-dessus visés. Toutefois, cette restriction n'empêchera pas la réparation et le remplacement de l'armement et des installations détériorés, selon la pratique des établissements navals et militaires en temps de paix.

ARTICLE XX.

Les règles de détermination du déplacement, telles qu'elles sont posées au Chapitre II, partie 4, s'appliqueront aux navires de chacune des Puissances Contractantes.

in their respective territories and possessions specified hereunder:

(1) The insular possessions which the United States now holds or may hereafter acquire in the Pacific Ocean, except (a) those adjacent to the coast of the United States, Alaska and the Panama Canal Zone, not including the Aleutian Islands, and (b) the Hawaiian Islands;

(2) Hongkong and the insular possessions which the British Empire now holds or may hereafter acquire in the Pacific Ocean, east of the meridian of 110° east longitude, except (a) those adjacent to the coast of Canada, (b) the Commonwealth of Australia and its Territories, and (c) New Zealand;

(3) The following insular territories and possessions of Japan in the Pacific Ocean, to wit: the Kurile Islands, the Bonin Islands, Amami-Oshima, the Loochoo Islands, Formosa and the Pescadores, and any insular territories or possessions in the Pacific Ocean which Japan may hereafter acquire.

The maintenance of the statu quo under the foregoing provisions implies that no new fortifications or naval bases shall be established in the territories and possessions specified; that no measures shall be taken to increase the existing naval facilities for the repair and maintenance of naval forces, and that no increase shall be made in the coast defences of the territories and possessions above specified. This restriction, however, does not preclude such repair and replacement of worn-out weapons and equipment as is customary in naval and military establishments in time of peace.

PART 2.

Scrapping of war ships. REGLES APPLICABLES AU DECLASSEMENT DES NAVIRES DE GUERRE.

RULES FOR SCRAPPING VESSELS OF WAR.

Rules adopted.

Les règles suivantes devront être observées pour le déclassement des navires de guerre dont on doit disposer comme il est prescrit aux articles II et III.

The following rules shall be observed for the scrapping of vessels of war which are to be disposed of in accordance with Articles II and III.

Condition required.

I. Un navire pour être déclassé doit être mis hors d'état de servir pour le combat.

I. A vessel to be scrapped must be placed in such condition that it cannot be put to combatant use.

Methods authorized.

II. Pour obtenir ce résultat d'une manière définitive, on devra employer l'un des moyens suivants:

II. This result must be finally effected in any one of the following ways:

Sinking.

(a) submersion du navire sans possibilité de renflouement;

(a) Permanent sinking of the vessel;

Breaking up.

(b) démolition. Cette opération devra toujours comprendre la destruction ou l'enlèvement de toutes machines, chaudières, cuirasses, ainsi que de tout le bordé de pont, de flanc et de fond;

(b) Breaking the vessel up. This shall always involve the destruction or removal of all machinery, boilers and armour, and all deck, side and bottom plating;

Conversion for target use.

(c) transformation pour l'usage exclusif de cible. Dans ce cas, on devra observer au préalable toutes les dispositions du paragraphe III de la présente partie, à l'exception du sous-paragraphe (6), (dans la mesure nécessaire pour utiliser le navire comme cible mobile), et du sous-paragraphe (7). Aucune des Puissances Contractantes ne pourra conserver, pour s'en servir comme de cible, plus d'un navire de ligne à la fois.

(c) Converting the vessel to target use exclusively. In such case all the provisions of paragraph III of this Part, except subparagraph (6), in so far as may be necessary to enable the ship to be used as a mobile target, and except subparagraph (7), must be previously complied with. Not more than one capital ship may be retained for this purpose at one time by any of the Contracting Powers.

Limitation.

(d) Parmi les navires de ligne arrivant à partir de 1931 à l'époque de leur déclassement, la France et l'Italie sont autorisées à conserver chacune deux bâtiments navigants, qui seront affectés exclusivement aux écoles de canonnage ou de torpilles. Pour la France, ces deux navires

(d) Of the capital ships which would otherwise be scrapped under the present Treaty in or after the year 1931, France and Italy may each retain two sea-going vessels for training purposes exclusively, that is, as gunnery or torpedo schools. The two vessels retained by France seront du type Jean Bart. Pour l'Italie, l'un d'eux sera le Dante Alighieri, le second sera du type Giulio Cesare. La France et l'Italie s'engagent à ne plus utiliser comme navires de guerre les navires ainsi conservés dont les blockhaus devront alors être enlevés et détruits.

III. (a) Sous réserve des exceptions spéciales de l'Article IX, quand un navire doit être déclassé, la première opération du déclassement, qui consiste à mettre le navire hors d'état de remplir ultérieurement un service de combat, doit être immédiatement commencée.

- (b) Un navire sera considéré comme mis hors d'état de remplir ultérieurement un service de combat quand on aura enlevé et mis à terre ou détruit à bord du navire:

  - (6) toutes les installations de télégraphie sans fil;
  - (7) le blockhaus et toute la cuirasse de flanc, ou, si l'on préfère, tout l'appareil moteur principal;

shall be of the Jean Bart class, and of those retained by Italy one shall be the Dante Alighieri, the other of the Giulio Cesare class. On retaining these ships for the purpose above stated, France and Italy respectively undertake to remove and destroy their conning-towers, and not to use the said ships as vessels of war.

By Italy.

III. (a) Subject to the special exceptions contained in Article IX, when a vessel is due for scrapping, the first stage of scrapping, which consists in rendering a ship incapable of further warlike service, shall be immediately undertaken.

DEFINITIONS.

DEFINITIONS.

Dans le présent Traité, les expressions suivantes doivent s'entendre respectivement avec le sens ci-après.

For the purposes of the present Treaty, the following expressions are to be understood in the sense defined in this Part.

NAVIRE DE LIGNE.

Un navire de ligne, en ce qui concerne les navires à construire dans l'avenir, est un navire de guerre autre qu'un navire porte-aéronefs, dont le déplacement type est supérieur à 10.000 tonnes (10.160 tonnes métriques), ou qui porte un canon d'un calibre supérieur à 8 pouces (203 millimètres).

A capital ship, in the case of ships hereafter built, is defined as a vessel of war, not an aircraft carrier, whose displacement exceeds 10,000 tons (10,160 metric tons) standard displacement, or which carries a gun with a calibre exceeding 8 inches (203 millimetres).

NAVIRE PORTE-AERONEFS.

AIRCRAFT CARRIER.

Air craft carrier.

Un navire porte-aéronefs est un navire de guerre d'un déplacement type supérieur à 10.000 tonnes (10.160 tonnes métriques), spécifiquement et exclusivement destiné à porter des aéronefs. Il doit être construit de manière qu'un aéronef puisse y prendre son vol ou s'y poser. Son plan et sa construction ne doivent pas lui permettre de porter un armement plus puissant que celui autorisé soit par l'article IX, soit par l'article X, selon le cas.

It must be so constructed that aircraft can be launched therefrom and landed thereon, and not designed and constructed for carrying a more powerful armament than that allowed to it under Article IX or Article X as the case may be.

DEPLACEMENT TYPE.

STANDARD DISPLACEMENT.

Le mot tonne employé dans le présent traité sans la qualification de "métrique" désigne une tonne de 2.240 lbs. ou 1.016 kilogrammes.

Les navires actuellement achevés continueront à figurer avec le déplacement qui leur est attribué selon leur système national d'évaluation. Toutefois, lorsqu'une Puissance compte le déplacement de ses navires en tonnes métriques, elle sera considérée, pour l'application du présent Traité, comme ne possédant que le tonnage équivalent en tonnes de 2.240 lbs.

Les navires achevés par la suite seront comptés pour leur déplacement type tel qu'il est défini au 1<sup>er</sup> alinéa de la présente définition.

Obligations suspended during war affecting naval defense of Power.

Si l'une des Puissances Contractantes se trouve engagée dans une guerre qui, dans son opinion, affecte sa sécurité nationale du côté de la mer, cette Puissance pourra, sur avis préalable donné aux autres Puissances Contractantes, se dégager, pour la durée des hostilités, de ses obligations résultant du présent traité, à l'exception de celles qui sont prévues aux articles XIII et XVII. Toutefois, cette Puissance devra notifier aux autres Puissances Contractantes que la situation est d'un caractère assez critique pour exiger cette mesure.

In conformity with Article XXIV of the Treaty between the United States of America, the British Empire, France, Italy and Japan to limit their respective naval armament, concluded at Washington on February 6, 1922, the undersigned representatives of the United States of America, the British Empire, France, Italy and Japan, this day met at the Department of State at Washington to proceed with the deposit with the Government of the United States of America of the instruments of ratification of the said Treaty by the governments they represent.

The representative of the Government of the French Republic made the following declaration:

“Le Gouvernement français estime et a toujours estimé que les rapports des tonnages globaux en bâtiments de ligne et en porte-aéronefs, attribués à chacune des Puissances Contractantes, n’expriment pas l’importance respective des intérêts maritimes de ces Puissances et ne peuvent être étendus aux catégories de navires autres que celles pour lesquelles ils ont été expressément stipulés.”<sup>1</sup>

The instruments of ratification produced having been found upon examination to be in due form, are entrusted to the Government of the United States of America to be deposited in the archives of the Department of State.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the present procès-verbal, of which a certified copy will be sent by the Government of the United States of America to each one of the Powers signatory to the said treaty, is signed.

ARTICLE PREMIER.

ARTICLE 1.

International Bureau.
Duties.

Les articles 7 et 8 de la Convention du 20 mai 1875 sont remplacés par les dispositions suivantes:

Articles 7 and 8 of the Convention of May 20, 1875, are superseded by the following provisions:

ART. 7.—Après que le Comité aura procédé au travail de coordination des mesures relatives aux unités électriques, et lorsque la Conférence générale en aura décidé par un vote unanime, le Bureau sera chargé de l'établissement et de la conservation des étalons des unités électriques et de leurs témoins, ainsi que de la comparaison, avec ces étalons, des étalons nationaux ou d'autres étalons de précision.

Le Bureau est chargé, en outre, des déterminations relatives aux constantes physiques dont une connaissance plus exacte peut servir à accroître la précision et à assurer mieux l'uniformité dans les domaines auxquels appartiennent les unités ci-dessus mentionnées (art. 6 et premier alinéa de l'art. 7).

Il est chargé, enfin, du travail de coordination des déterminations analogues effectuées dans d'autres instituts.

ART. 8.—Les prototypes et étalons internationaux, ainsi que leurs témoins, demeureront déposés dans le Bureau; l'accès du dépôt sera uniquement réservé au Comité international.

ARTICLE 2.

Les articles 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 15, 17, 18 et 20 du Règlement annexé à la Convention du 20 mai 1875 sont remplacés par les dispositions suivantes:

ART. 6.—La dotation annuelle du Bureau international est composée de deux parties, l'une fixe, l'autre complémentaire.

La partie fixe est, en principe, de 250000<sup>fr</sup>, mais peut être portée à 300000<sup>fr</sup> par décision unanime du Comité. Elle est à la charge de tous les États et des Colonies autonomes qui ont adhéré à la Convention du Mètre avant la Sixième Conférence générale.

La partie complémentaire est formée des contributions des États et des Colonies autonomes qui sont entrés dans la Convention après ladite Conférence générale.

ARTICLE 7. After the Committee shall have proceeded with the work of coordinating the measures relative to electric units and when the general conference shall have so decided by a unanimous vote, the Bureau will have charge of the establishment and keeping of the standards of the electric units and their test copies and also of comparing with those standards, the national or other standards of precision.

The Bureau is also charged with the duty of making the determinations relative to physical constants, a more accurate knowledge of which may be useful in increasing precision and further insuring uniformity in the provinces to which the above mentioned units belong (Article 6 and 1st paragraph of Article 7).

It is finally charged with the duty of coordinating similar determinations effected in other institutions.

ARTICLE 8. The international prototypes and standards and also their test copies shall be deposited in the Bureau; access to the deposit shall be solely reserved for the international committee.

ARTICLE 2.

Articles 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 15, 17, 18 and 20, of the regulations annexed to the Convention of May 20, 1875, are superseded by the following provisions.

ARTICLE 6. The annual appropriation for the international bureau consists of two parts, one of which is fixed, the other complementary.

The fixed part is, in principle, 250,000 francs, but on the unanimous vote of the Committee may be raised to 300,000 francs. It is borne by all the states and autonomous colonies that adhered to the meter convention before the sixth General Conference.

The complementary part is made up of contributions from the states and autonomous colonies that joined the Convention after the aforesaid General Conference.

Budget.

Le Comité est chargé d'établir, sur la proposition du directeur, le budget annuel, mais sans dépasser la somme calculée conformément aux stipulations des deux alinéas ci-dessus. Ce budget est porté, chaque année, dans un Rapport spécial financier, à la connaissance des Gouvernements des Hautes Parties contractantes.

Provision for increased contributions.
Vol. 20, p. 721.

Dans le cas où le Comité jugerait nécessaire, soit d'accroître au delà de 300000<sup>fr</sup> la partie fixe de la dotation annuelle, soit de modifier le calcul des contributions déterminé par l'article 20 du présent Règlement, il devrait en saisir les Gouvernements, de façon à leur permettre de donner, en temps utile, les instructions nécessaires à leurs délégués à la Conférence générale suivante, afin que celle-ci puisse délibérer valablement. La décision sera valable seulement dans le cas où aucun des États contractants n'aura exprimé, ou n'exprimera, dans la Conférence, un avis contraire.

Advances for delinquencies.

Si un État est demeuré trois années sans effectuer le versement de sa contribution, celle-ci est répartie entre les autres États, au prorata de leurs propres contributions. Les sommes supplémentaires, versées ainsi par les États pour parfaire le montant de la dotation du Bureau, sont considérées comme une avance faite à l'État retardataire, et leur sont remboursées si celui-ci vient à acquitter ses contributions arriérées.

Suspension of delinquents.

Les avantages et prérogatives conférés par l'adhésion à la Convention du Mètre sont suspendus à l'égard des États déficitaires de trois années.

Expulsion of delinquent state.

Après trois nouvelles années, l'État déficitaire est exclu de la Convention, et le calcul des contributions est rétabli conformément aux dispositions de l'article 20 du présent Règlement.

International Committee.
Composition, etc.
Vol. 20, p. 718.

ART. 8.—Le Comité international, mentionné à l'article 3 de la Convention, sera composé de

The Committee is charged with the duty of drawing up on the motion of the Director the annual budget, but without exceeding the amount computed in accordance with the provisions of the two paragraphs above. The budget is made known every year by means of a special financial report to the governments of the high contracting parties.

If the committee find it necessary either to increase beyond 300,000 francs, the fixed part of the annual appropriation or to modify the computation of the contributions as determined by Article 20, of these regulations, it should lay the matter before the governments so as to enable them to issue in good time the needed instructions to their delegates to the next General Conference in order that the said conference may deliberate to good purpose. The decision will stand only in the case that no opposition shall have been expressed before or in the conference by any of the contracting states.

If the state should let three years go without paying its contribution, that contribution shall be divided among the other states proportionally to their own contribution. The additional sum thus paid by the states to make up the whole of the appropriation of the Bureau shall be regarded as an advance to the delinquent state and shall be reimbursed to them if that state should make good its arrears.

The advantages and prerogatives conferred by adhering to the Meter Convention are suspended in the case of states that have been delinquent three years.

After three more years the delinquent state shall be expelled from the Convention and the reckoning of the contributions restored in accordance with the provisions of Article 20, of these regulations.

ARTICLE 8. The International Committee mentioned at Article 3 of the Convention shall be comdix-huit membres, appartenant tous à des États différents.

Lors du renouvellement, par moitié, du Comité international, les membres sortants seront d'abord ceux qui, en cas de vacances, auront été élus provisoirement dans l'intervalle entre deux sessions de la Conférence; les autres seront désignés par le sort.

Les membres sortants sont rééligibles.

ART. 9.—Le Comité international se constitue en choisissant lui-même, au scrutin secret, son président et son secrétaire. Ces nominations sont notifiées aux Gouvernements des Hautes Parties contractantes.

Le président et le secrétaire du Comité, et le directeur du Bureau, doivent appartenir à des pays différents.

Une fois constitué, le Comité ne peut procéder à de nouvelles élections ou nominations que trois mois après que tous les membres auront été informés de la vacance donnant lieu à un vote.

ART. 10.—Le Comité international dirige tous les travaux métrologiques que les Hautes Parties contractantes décideront de faire exécuter en commun.

Il est chargé, en outre, de surveiller la conservation des prototypes et étalons internationaux.

Il peut, enfin, instituer la coopération de spécialistes dans des questions de métrologie, et coordonner les résultats de leurs travaux.

ART. 11.—Le Comité se réunira au moins une fois tous les deux ans.

ART. 12.—Les votes au sein du Comité ont lieu à la majorité des voix; en cas de partage, la voix du président est prépondérante. Les décisions ne sont valables que si le nombre des membres présents égale au moins la moitié des membres élus qui composent le Comité.

Sous réserve de cette condition, les membres absents ont le droit de déléguer leurs votes aux mem-posed of 18 members all from different states.

At the time of the renewal by halves of the international committee, the outgoing members shall be first those who may have been provisionally elected to fill vacancies between two sessions of the conference; the others will be drawn by lot.

Outgoing members may be reelected.

ARTICLE 9. The International Committee organizes itself by electing by its own secret vote its Chairman and Secretary. Those appointments are notified to the governments of the high contracting parties.

The chairman and the secretary of the Committee and the Director of the Bureau must belong to different countries.

Once organized, the Committee cannot hold other elections or make other appointments except before three months shall have elapsed after the notice of a vacancy calling for a vote shall have been given to all the members.

ARTICLE 10. The International Committee directs all the metrological works that the high contracting parties shall decide to have carried on jointly.

It is also charged with the duty of seeing to the conservation of the international prototypes and standards.

It may, lastly, institute the cooperation of specialists in questions of meteorology and coordinate the results of their work.

ARTICLE 11. The committee shall meet at least once in two years.

ARTICLE 12. The balloting in the committee is by a majority vote: in case of a tie vote the chairman has the casting vote.

Decisions are only valid if the members present are at least one half of the elected members forming the committee.

Subject to that condition absent members have a right to delegate their votes to present

ART. 15.—Le Comité international élaborera un règlement détaillé pour l'organisation et les travaux du Bureau, et il fixera les taxes à payer pour les travaux extraordinaires prévus aux articles 6 et 7 de la Convention.

Application of dues.

Ces taxes seront affectées au perfectionnement du matériel scientifique du Bureau. Un prélèvement annuel pourra être effectué, en faveur de la Caisse de Retraites, sur le total des taxes perçues par le Bureau.

ART. 17.—Un règlement, établi par le Comité, fixera l'effectif maximum pour chaque catégorie du personnel du Bureau.

Le directeur et ses adjoints seront nommés au scrutin secret par le Comité international. Leur nomination sera notifiée aux Gouvernements des Hautes Parties contractantes.

Le directeur nommera les autres membres du personnel, dans les limites établies par le règlement mentionné au premier alinéa ci-dessus.

Access to prototypes.

ART. 18.—Le directeur du Bureau n'aura accès au lieu de dépôt des prototypes internationaux qu'en vertu d'une résolution du Comité, et en présence d'au moins un de ses membres.

Possession of keys.

Le lieu de dépôt des prototypes ne pourra s'ouvrir qu'au moyen de trois clés, dont une sera en la possession du directeur des Archives de France, la seconde dans celle du Président du Comité, et la troisième dans celle du directeur du Bureau.

Use of national standard prototypes.

Les étalons de la catégorie des prototypes nationaux serviront seuls aux travaux ordinaires de comparaisons du Bureau.

The Director of the Bureau is a non-voting member of the Committee.

ARTICLE 15. The International Committee will draw up a detailed set of regulations for the organization and work of the Bureau and will fix the dues to be paid for the extraordinary works provided by Articles 6 and 7 of the Convention.

Those dues will be applied to improving the scientific equipment of the Bureau. A certain amount may be drawn annually for the retirement fund from the total dues collected by the Bureau.

ARTICLE 17. A regulation drawn up by the Committee will determine the maximum staff for each category of the personnel of the Bureau. The Director and his assistants shall be elected by secret ballot by the International Committee. Other appointments shall be notified to the governments of the high contracting parties. The Director will appoint the other members of the personnel within the bounds laid by the regulation mentioned in the first paragraph above.

ARTICLE 18. The Director of the Bureau shall have access to the place where the international prototypes are deposited only in pursuance of a resolution of the Committee and in the presence of at least one of its members.

The place of deposit of the prototypes shall be opened only by means of three keys, one of which shall be in the possession of the Director of Archives of France, the second in that of the Chairman of the Committee and the third in that of the Director of the Bureau.

The standards of the class of national prototypes alone shall be used for the ordinary comparing work of the Bureau.

ARTICLE 20. The scale of contributions spoken of in Article 9 of the Convention is established établie, pour la partie fixe, sur la base de la dotation indiquée par l'article 6 du présent Règlement, et sur celle de la population; la contribution normale de chaque État ne peut être inférieure à 5 pour 1000, ni supérieure à 15 pour 100 de la dotation totale, quel que soit le chiffre de la population.

Pour établir cette échelle, on détermine d'abord quels sont les États qui se trouvent dans les conditions voulues pour ce minimum et ce maximum, et l'on répartit le reste de la somme contributive entre les autres États, en raison directe du chiffre de leur population.

Les parts contributives ainsi calculées sont valables pour toute la période de temps comprise entre deux Conférences générales consécutives et ne peuvent être modifiées, dans l'intervalle, que dans les cas suivants:

a. Si l'un des États adhérents a laissé passer trois années successives sans faire ses versements;

b. Si, au contraire, un État, antérieurement retardataire de plus de trois ans, ayant versé ses contributions arriérées, il y a lieu de restituer aux autres Gouvernements les avances faites par eux.

La contribution complémentaire est calculée sur la même base de la population, et est égale à celle que les États anciennement entrés dans la Convention paient dans les mêmes conditions.

Si un État ayant adhéré à la Convention déclare en vouloir étendre le bénéfice à une ou plusieurs de ses Colonies non autonomes, le chiffre de la population des dites Colonies sera ajouté à celui de l'État pour le calcul de l'échelle des contributions.

Lorsqu'une Colonie reconnue autonome désirera adhérer à la Convention, elle sera considérée, en ce qui concerne son entrée dans cette Convention, suivant la décision de la Métropole, soit comme for its fixed part on the basis of the appropriation referred to in Article 6 of the present regulations and of the population; the normal contribution of each state cannot be less than 5 to a thousand nor more than 15% of the whole appropriation, regardless of the population.

In order to establish that scale, it shall first be found which are the states that are in the conditions required for the minimum and maximum and the remainder of the quota shall be distributed among the other states in the direct ratio of their population.

The quota thus reckoned stands for the whole time included between two consecutive General Conferences and can only be modified in the meanwhile in the following cases:

(a) If one of the adhering states allows three successive years to pass without making its payments;

(b) When, on the contrary, a state which had been previously delinquent for more than three years pays up its arrears, and the occasion arises to return to the other governments the advances made by them.

The complementary contribution is computed on the same basis of population and is like that which the states that have long belonged to the Convention pay under the same conditions.

If after adhering to the convention a state declares it would like to extend the benefits thereof to one or more of its colonies that are not autonomous, the number of the population of the said colonies would be added to that of the State in reckoning the scale of contributions.

When a colony that is recognized as autonomous shall desire to adhere to the convention, it will be regarded with respect to its admission into the Convention and as the mother coun-

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
Washington, June 23, 1923.

EXCELLENCY:

From Secretary of State

In connection with the signing today of an agreement for the renewal of the Convention of Arbitration concluded between the United States and Great Britain, April 4, 1908, and renewed from time to time, I have the honor, in pursuance of our informal conversations, to state the following understanding which I shall be glad to have you confirm on behalf of your Government.

On February 24 last the President proposed to the Senate that it consent under certain stated conditions to the adhesion by the United States to the Protocol of December 16, 1920, under which the Permanent Court of International Justice had been created at The Hague. As the Senate does not convene in its regular session until December next, action upon this proposal will necessarily be delayed. In the event that the Senate gives its assent to the proposal, I understand that the British Government will not be averse to considering a modification of the Convention of Arbitration which we are renewing, or the making of a separate agreement, providing for the reference of disputes mentioned in the Convention to the Permanent Court of International Justice.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurance of my highest consideration.

CHARLES E. HUGHES

The Right Honorable
Sir AUCKLAND GEDDES, G. C. M. G., K. C. B.,
Ambassador of Great Britain.

[The Ambassador of Great Britain to the Secretary of State.]

BRITISH EMBASSY,
Washington, D. C., June 23, 1923.

No. 523.

SIR:

From British Ambassador.

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your note of today's date in which you were so good as to inform me, in connection with the renewal of the Arbitration Convention of April 4th, 1908, between Great Britain and the United States, that the President of the United States had proposed to the Senate the adherence of the United States, under certain conditions, to the Protocol of December 16th, 1920, creating the Permanent Court of International Justice at the Hague, and that, if the Senate assents to this proposal, you understand that His Britannic Majesty's Government would be prepared to consider the conclusion of an agreement, providing for the reference to the Permanent Court of International Justice of disputes mentioned in the Convention.

Under instructions from His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs I have the honor to confirm your understanding of His Majesty's Government's attitude on this point and to state that if the Senate approve the President's proposal His Majesty's Government will be prepared to consider with the United States Government the conclusion of an agreement for the reference to the Permanent Court of International Justice of disputes mentioned in the Arbitration Convention.

I have the honour to be with the highest consideration, Sir, your most obedient, humble servant,

A. GEDDES

Contracting Powers.

The United States of America and the United States of Venezuela, desiring to strengthen their reciprocal relations, to facilitate the course of punitive justice and to limit the crimes which may be committed in their respective territories; to prevent the impunity which would result from the escape of guilty persons and of their asylum in the territory of one or the other nation, have resolved to conclude a Treaty for the extradition of the accused as well as of those who have been sentenced, and have appointed for that purpose the following Plenipotentiaries:

Plenipotentiaries.

The President of the United States of America, John Campbell White, Chargé d'Affaires ad interim of the United States of America to Venezuela, and

The Provisional President of the United States of Venezuela, Doctor Pedro Itriago Chacín, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the United States of Venezuela;

Los Estados Unidos de América y los Estados Unidos de Venezuela, deseando estrechar las relaciones recíprocas, facilitar la acción de la justicia penal y reprimir los crímenes que puedan cometerse en sus respectivos territorios; a fin de evitar la impunidad que resultaría de la evasión de los delincuentes y de su asilo en el territorio de una u otra nación, han resuelto celebrar un Tratado de Extradición de los enjuiciados y de los condenados, y han nombrado al efecto por sus Plenipotenciarios, a saber:

El Excelentísimo Señor Presidente de los Estados Unidos de América, al Señor John Campbell White, Encargado de Negocios ad interim de los Estados Unidos de América; y el Señor Presidente Provisional de los Estados Unidos de Venezuela, al Señor Doctor Pedro Itriago Chacín, Ministro de Relaciones Exteriores de los Estados Unidos de Venezuela;

Dicha entrega tendrá lugar unicamente en virtud de las pruebas de culpabilidad que, según la legislación del país en que el refugiado o acusado se encuentre, justificarían su detención y enjuiciamiento si el crimen o delito se hubiese cometido allí.
